Mesalands Rodeo Rides Into Town
Friday & Saturday, October 9-10
Quay County Fairgrounds

College rodeo lands in our backyard. Mesalands Community College hosts its Fall Rodeo at the Quay County Fairgrounds, and Mesalands students compete against teams from across the region. Mesalands fields a nationally ranked team with a record-setting history, including back-to-back Grand Canyon Region titles. Come watch locals ride in this event.

Three Ways to Meet the Mayor
October 6 & October 8

Mayor Marcy Willis keeps her door open this month, and she does it three different times.

A Town Hall fills the Historical Odeon Theatre on Tuesday, October 6 starting at 6 p.m.

Arrive early, grab some concessions, and pick a good seat. Other commissioners may join. Bring your questions, your comments, and your thinking caps and let's all make Tucumcari better together!

Coffee with the Mayor returns Thursday, October 8 at 10 a.m. in the Liberty Room at the Tucumcari Convention Center, 1500 W Route 66 Blvd.

Senior Lunch with the Mayor follows the same day at 11:30 a.m., at the Tucumcari Senior Citizens Center, 523 S 3rd.

Mayor Willis hosts coffee and lunch events on the second Thursday of each month.

HAUNTING THE MOTHER ROAD

History Alive Tours

Friday & Saturday, October 9 and 10, 6 p.m.
Departing from the Tucumcari Railroad Depot,
100 W. Railroad Ave.

Climb aboard for a journey through Tucumcari's unforgettable Route 66 past! In celebration of the Mother Road's 100th anniversary, this year's History Alive tour explores the iconic motels and businesses that made Tucumcari famous and the pioneers, entrepreneurs and colorful characters behind them. As you travel beneath the neon lights, listen closely: you never know what stories, or spirits, may still be haunting the Mother Road!

Spooktacular Block Party

Saturday, October 31 from 4-6 p.m.
Second Street

Halloween fun is taking over Second Street! Bring the kids in costume for a family-friendly afternoon filled with trick-or-treat booths, games, food, and plenty of spooky fun in downtown Tucumcari. Businesses, organizations, individuals, and community groups interested in participating can visit the Tucumcari MainStreet website or follow Tucumcari MainStreet on social media for sign-up information.
